WILLIMANTIC

What is Going On Tonight Nabhuas Indians, No. 22, K. of P., in Jorian block.
Patriotic exercises in Town hall.
Willimantic Duplein League, meeting.

Spiritualist Services.
Services under the auspices of the First Spiritualist society were held on Sunday in the rooms of the Willimantic Women's club at eleven in the forenoon and at seven thirty in the evening. Mrs. Kate M. Ham, of Haverhill, Mass., was the speaker. This was Mrs. Ham's first visit to Willimantic, but as a message bearer and inspirational speaker, she proved highly interesting.

Patriotic Programmes.
The evening service at the local Methodist church was of a patriotic nature, the chorus choir leading in the singing of national songs during the service. The address of the pastor, Rev. Willard O. Nixson, was on the subject, "Washington, the Christian Patriot," and was exceedingly interesting.

Evidence of Reform Wave.
Willimantic has now gone through a full week without a session of the police court, there being none on Saturday mornings.

Thirty Aspirants For Railway Mail Clerkship.

In answer to an announcement stating that examinations would be held in this city for young men who desired to enter the railway mail service, about thirty applicants presented themselves at the local post office Saturday. On account of the large number who appeared, a room at the Normal School building was secured by Orlando P. Smith, local secretary of the Civil Service Board in which the examinations were held. The candidates were mostly from out of town, only a few being residents of Willimantic.

Scattering Buckwheat For Quail.
Many of the local sportsmen have been worried because of the large amount of snow at present on the ground and the remark has been circled that there would be few "birds" just season. To remedy the trouble, members of the Willimantic Fish and Game Protective association have secured a quantity of buckwheat, which at the store of the Jordan Hardware company and of Mitchell Larume, and the association is desirous of the cooperation of farmers and others who know the haunts of the birds in distributing it for their use.

AGAIN TIED.
Nip and Tuck Between Pirates and Athletics in Duplein League.

At the beginning of the eighteenth week of the tourney of the Willimantic Duplein league the Pirates and Athletics, who have been in first and second place almost from the start of the season, are again tied for premier honors. The Cubs, whose game night was a feature of the latter part of the first half of the season, are falling, and are now in fourth place, tied with the Senators. The Tigers have been coming strong, and are now third, six points behind the leaders. One record was broken during the week, the team total, boosted by the Pirates to 158, a gain of five runs over the previous best of the Senators. Pickett, Stimmens, Mathewson and Pelouquin are all bowling over 100, and the four of them have averages of ninety or better.
Interest in the games has not flagged, and after remainder of the season, which is nearly two-thirds dispatched, will probably see the excitement growing.

The standing and records at the end of the seventeenth week are as follows:

	W.	L.	P.	P.
Pirates	34	17	24829
Athletics	34	17	24834
Tigers	26	25	24085
Cubs	26	25	24085
Senators	26	25	23729
White Sox	23	28	23730
Red Sox	18	33	23660

High team total, Pirates 148.
High team strike, Athletics 54.
High single strike, Mullen, 150.
High three strings, Wood 370.
High individual average, Pickett, 105.7-51.

"Traffic in Souls" Draws Well.
The season's photoplay of the un-worldly "Traffic in Souls" was run off at the Looper Opera house Saturday for an afternoon and evening performance, both of which were well attended, as has been the case with all the performances of the three day stand.

Sleighs Scarce Sunday.
Sleighing parties have been the source of attraction for the past few days, and it was almost impossible to hire any sort of a sleigh Sunday, so great was the demand in proportion to the supply available. It is many years since the young people of the city had such an opportunity for the good old fashioned sport. Those who, as so many do, affirm that we no longer have the winters we used to have, have been amply justified on any day.

Precautions Against Accidents.
Fetters hanging from the roofs of the buildings and the slippery condition of the sidewalks has made the conditions more dangerous for foot travelers. Many property owners were busy Saturday clearing off their sidewalks, or having them cleared by the city, to prevent accidents to passersby and to keep the melting snow and ice from finding a way downwards through their ceilings, thus combining altruism with utilitarianism.

FOUGHT FIRE WITH SNOW.
Other Buildings Saved When Reynolds Barn Burned Down.

A large barn on the property of Mrs.
George W. Reynolds of Mansfield Depot, known as Spring Manor, was burned to the ground late Friday night after a fire started in the barn, which carried over to the main house, and carried, farm implements and a large quantity of hay and grain. The loss is estimated at about $1,800, and covered by insurance. Had it not been for the amount of snow on the other buildings of the estate, a much greater loss would in all probability have been sustained. The total amount of insurance on the property was $25,000, placed through the agency of J. B.
Baldwin of this city.

Reynolds' attention was attracted to the blaze by the bright light outside his window, and on looking out, it was seen that the barn, called No. 1, and the nearest to the house of the five on the property, was in flames. The fire, which was not noticed at once, hurried to the scene, and attempted to put out the fire by the end of extinguishers, but it was soon seen that nothing could be done to save that building and their attention was directed to keeping the fire away from the other buildings on the property. Some things were saved from the burning barn, but not many, as the heat was too intense.

The men shoveled snow upon the other buildings, and this, with the large amount upon their roofs, proved sufficient to save them.

The barn which burned was a building 45 by 103 feet, with an addition 25 by 44 feet, a good sized building, but not the largest in the town on the property. No cause for the fire is known.

FUNERALS.

Martin Sullivan.
The funeral of Martin Sullivan was held Saturday morning from St. Joseph's church, Rev. T. P. Hansen conducting the services. The deceased was born in Ireland, and was a native of this city. He was a member of St. Joseph's church, and was a very good man.

John Fitch.
The funeral of John Fitch was held from his late home in Mansfield four corners Saturday afternoon at one o'clock and was largely attended. The deceased having been a lifelong resident in the town of Mansfield, Rev.
C. A. Adams of St. Paul's P. E. church officiated. The remains were placed in the receiving vault in the Stors bury.

Expected Big Number of Muskrats.
Hunters of muskrats are preparing for a big killing of the fur-bearing rodents. The hunters have it figured out that after the long period of cold weather, the muskrats will be coming backing up of Arctic conditions. Probably a freshet, and that the rats will be coming back in great numbers, and by the high rising waters and placed at the mercy of the gunners. With ice that is from 14 to 18 inches thick on the rivers and more than a foot of snow on top of that, the old hands say the game for the hunters is right for some real lively times around the rivers within the next few days.
The rats are waiting for a chance to make a cleanup.

LENTER PREACHERS.

Rev. P. S. Irvine, Church of the Resurrection, Putnam; April 9, Rev. A. E. Kael, Trinity church, Brooklyn.

The last of the Lenten services at St. Alban's church is to be on Ash Wednesday morning at 7.30 o'clock.

OBITUARY.

James Milton Hopkins.
James Milton Hopkins, 77, died at his home in Foster Friday. He was a native of Vermont, but was long a resident of the town of Putnam, and for years conducted a store at what is known as the old Round Tavern.
Mr. Hopkins leaves his wife, who is in Scotland, E. T. two brothers, Louis cemetery. Funeral Director Jay M.

Shepard was in charge.

William Frost.
Mr. and Mrs. William P. Jordan, Thomas J. Little and Joseph Rollins, sons of this city are in Fall River, Mass., today attending the funeral of William Frost of that city, who died Thursday of pneumonia at his home there. The deceased was the husband of May (Rollinson) Frost, who was a resident of Willimantic for many years and well known here.

Fifteen Tables of Auction Whist.
One of the most delightful affairs of the season was the auction whist given on Saturday afternoon by Mrs.
B. Everett Taylor at the home of her father, Amos M. Hathaway of Prospect street. There were fifteen tables, and the game played was the variety known as pivot. Prizes were given for the highest score at each table, and the game was played with the most skill and interest. The tables were set by Mrs. William Buck and Miss Turner of this city. Mrs. Woodbury of Concord and Mrs. Bales of New York, Mrs. Lily Bell of Willimantic and Mrs. Smith of Storrs participated in the game. The tables were decorated in honor of Washington's birthday, the national colors furnishing over 100 of the decorations. The favors were appropriate and dainty.
Dessert of Hartford catered for the occasion, which was highly successful.

DANIELSON

Patriotic Societies Attend Church—

Death of James M. Hopkins.

Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Higgins of Pawtucket spent Sunday with friends in Danielson.
Mr. and Mrs. John Rudy were with New London relatives over Sunday.
Miss Nellie Sullivan of Worcester was in Danielson with Mr. and Mrs. Louis B. Kennedy.
George F. Herick of Meriden was in Danielson with friends in Danielson Saturday.

Attended Masked Ball.
Miss Maude Graves and Miss Bertha Kimball were at Oakland beach Saturday evening, to attend a masquerade ball.

Herbert Barnett of Worcester has been a recent visitor with friends in town.

Buy a Farm.
Edward Linehan, for 23 years employed as coachman by J. W. Atwood of Putnam, has just purchased the Bouthillier farm on Alder hill.

Clearing Car Tracks.
Sunday was not a day of rest for some of the men employed by the Shore Line Electric company, for the work of removing ice from the tracks had to be done by others than the regular car crew.

On the cars on the Central Village, Norwich line the name Connecticut Railroad was changed to Shore Line Electric Railway company and the cars are being painted green instead of yellow.

At St. James' church Sunday the regular services for the Lenten season were held at all of the churches of the parish, or having them cleared by the city, to prevent accidents to
downwards through their ceilings, thus
combining altruism with utilitarianism.

Improved Sleighing Opportunities.
Not a sleigh was to be had to hire for love nor money in Danielson Sunday morning, and about everything with runners under it had been let for the day. There were sleighing parties in the vicinity of this town others in this vicinity and vice versa.

Attended Patriotic Service.
Members of the G. A. R., W. R. C., S. V. and U. S. W. V. were in the Baptist church Sunday evening to attend the patriotic service. The address was delivered by Rev. W. D.
Swales.

Will Note Washington's Birthday.
In the public schools of Killingly, which will be in session today (Monday), the students will observe Washington's birthday as to be held. There was a display of the national colors in the school, and the students will be instructed in many cases the flags will be permitted to remain floating today.

Married Thirty-two Years.
Chief and Mrs. George M. Pilling passed the thirty-second anniversary of their marriage at the home of the latter, which was celebrated by the observance of the event, but congratulations from friends who learned of the occasion.

Edwin C. Milner's Funeral Today.
Many viewed the body of Edwin C.
Milner, lying in state at his home in Mansfield, Saturday afternoon. This morning at 10 o'clock there is to be a prayer service at the home. The body is then to be taken on a special hearse to the cemetery, where the services are to be held in Christ Episcopal church.

Address Postponed.
The address on Lyrics and Songs of the Revolution, which was to have been given last Thursday afternoon, before the members of Sarah Williams Danielson chapter, D. A. R., by Mrs. C. H.
Baldwin, has been postponed, and the address will be given at the home of Mrs. Clinton W. Atwood next Friday afternoon.
